HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FORMED

The Central Kentucky High School Athletic Association was organized in Lexington Saturday by the representatives of six Blue Grass high schools. The purpose of the association is to further the development, regulation and purification of high school athletics in Central Kentucky. The towns represented were Lexington, Mt. Sterling, Maysville, Cynthiana, Paris and Frankfort. Winchester and Georgetown have been invited to join the association.

Those present at the meeting were: Principal Ligon, of Morton High, Lexington; Principal Hopper, of Mt. Sterling High; Principal Mamce, of Maysville High; Principal Cord, of Cynthiana High; Principal Hendricks, of Paris High, and Principal McKee, of Frankfort High.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Prof. W. O. Hopper, Mt. Sterling; Vice President, Prof. R. I. Cord, of Cynthiana; Secretary-treasurer, Prof. M. E. Ligon, Lexington. The constitution and by-laws were drafted at the meeting and will be given out for publication soon.

The feature of the association will be that all basketball, baseball and football schedules will be arranged and published before the seasons start. All games will be played under uniform contracts and by the by-laws of the association.

Just before the meeting adjourned it was decided to have representatives of all of the member schools meet at Cynthiana at the end of the basketball season and there contest for the state high school championship.

Our show window is filled with a beautifully selected line of Crane's very newest styles in social stationery. An inspection invited.

MOVING PICTURE MACHINES

Being Manufactured by Maggard-Bradley Company in City of Morehead.

Few people would believe that situated in the little city of Morehead, Rowan county is located a manufacturing establishment that is sending its product all over the entire world, but such is the case. The Maggard-Bradley Co., is located there and their handsome stone structure is the home of one of the finest if not the finest moving picture machines on the market, the Cosmograph. This machine was invented by a Morehead man, hardly more than a boy in years and has been declared by competent judges to be a wonderful machine. The company employs fifteen skilled mechanics besides many helpers and laborers. Their plant contains the finest machinery obtainable for their purpose. The plant now has a capacity of five machines per day but expect to shortly increase that to fifteen machines.

The machine complete in its case weighs but 27 pounds and can be attached to any electric light socket.

The machine has been on the market but a few months but is meeting with tremendous success. Mr. Sam Bradley, the well known lumber man and financier of Rowan county is a big stock holder in the company and is very enthusiastic over its prospects.

An establishment of this character means much to a city and Morehead should be proud of this company and very grateful to Mr. Bradley for keeping it in Morehead rather than moving the company to a larger city.

FITZPATRICK CASE TO BE TRIED IN JANUARY

The Court of Appeals on Thursday decided the case of W. T. Fitzpatrick, vs. Circuit Judge Young, in favor of Young and denied the writ of prohibition to prevent Judge Young from trying the case. The case is one in which Mr. Fitzpatrick is trying to regain possession of his vast estate in this county which was taken out of his hands some years ago on account of his health, which he claims has been recovered with the result that he now wants control of his affairs. In the Montgomery County Court the case was decided in his favor, but an appeal was taken to Circuit Court and the case tried there, where Fitzpatrick lost. His attorneys, Messrs. Kinsolving and Dundon, filed exceptions to Judge Young trying the case, claiming that there was no appeal from the verdict of the lower Court, which gave him his property back, but the Appellate Court decided otherwise and the case will have to be tried over at the next January term. There is involved in the suit property valued at over $100,000. A. L. Tipton is Mr. Fitzpatrick's trustee.

CONTEST WILL BE FILED BY "WETS"

The County Board of Election Commissioners met and canvassed the returns of the elections held September 26th and 28th. Attorneys representing both the "drys" and the "wets" were present. It is understood that the "wets" will contest the election held the 28th claiming that the election held the 26th was the legal election and the one under which the law will be construed. The "drys" claim that the saloons must close sixty days after the certificate of the result of the 28th has been recorded on the records of the County Court. If the "drys" are sustained in their contention when the saloons will close sixty days after October 18th.

The case will be hotly contested.

SEPTEMBER

COURT CLOSES

September term of Montgomery Circuit Court closed here Saturday after a quiet, but hard-working term. There were few convictions at the term, the docket not being a very large one. In the case of the Administrator of Ray McCarty, seeking $20,000 damages from the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad for the killing of the boy by a train here last summer, the case was continued until the January term of Montgomery Circuit Court.

FINE REVIVAL MEETINGS

Being Held at the Baptist Church Conducted by Rev. Sid. Williams.

Considerable interest is being shown, and splendid crowds are attending the revival services being conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Sid. Williams, of Texas. Mr. Williams is a forceful and convincing speaker, and great good is sure to be accomplished. He is accompanied by Mr. Brown, a singer and harpist.

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS

The Montgomery county grand jury adjourned here late Thursday, having found fifty-six indictments for various offenses, after a long session. Notwithstanding the fact that there were examined a long list of witnesses in an effort to find evidence of vote buying and selling at the recent local option election, only one indictment was returned, that one against a negro man for soliciting votes for whiskey in the Third ward at the election held on Saturday, September 26th. The indictments are mostly for minor offenses.

OFFICER ASSAULTED SATURDAY NIGHT

While attempting to arrest Harry May for disorderly conduct Saturday night Policeman E. W. Smith was struck over the head by May with a loaded buggy whip. The blow knocked Mr. Smith down and badly cut his head. May, who was in a break cart then whipped up the mule he was driving and the policeman fired his revolver at him, but missed. Policeman J. C. Tipton secured an automobile and followed the man out the Maysville pike and caught him a few miles from the city, and lodged him in jail. In the police court Tuesday morning May was fined $36.00. He claimed that the policeman struck him in the face before he hit him with the whip.

FOR SALE—House and lot in best part of city. Lot 65x238, seven-room house, all modern improvements. Call phone 48. Will sell cheap if sold at once.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my thanks to the loyal workers who assisted me in the election in the fourth ward September 26th and 28th.

William P. Apperson.

JUDGE DAY SELLS FARM

Judge B. F. Day, of this city, has sold to John Conlee, Thomas Richardson and others, his farm, containing over 200 acres, and lying on Lulbegrud creek, near the town of Kiddville, in Clark county, for a private price. The farm was divided and sold in three tracts. Possession will be given on March 1st, 1915. The lands are excellent for grazing and the growing of corn, and are well watered.

BATH CIRCUIT COURT BEGINS

Bath Circuit Court began at Owingsville Monday and the term promises to be an extraordinary one, as the Commonwealth docket is quite a large one, with a number of murder cases on the docket. The civil docket and equity docket also has a number of important cases to be tried.

INTERESTING STATISTICS

Compiled by the United States Government and Being Distributed to the Public.

The United States Census Department at Washington has just issued a bulletin dealing with the ownership of Montgomery county homes. The important facts contained in the bulletin relating to this county are as follows:

There are 2,913 homes in Montgomery county. Of this number 1,231 are farm homes. 645 of the farm homes are owned by their occupants and are free of mortgaged incumbrance. The mortgaged farm homes number 138. Renters occupy 429 farm homes in this county.

Out of a total of 2,913 homes in the county 1,682 are urban homes.

There are 627 urban home owners in the county. Of this number 70 are mortgaged. 494 of the urban owned homes are free of incumbrance. There are 941 rented urban homes in the county.

The census enumerators were unable to secure data pertaining to the ownership of a small percentage of both the rural and urban homes in this county.

LOCALS WIN.

The Federals, of Winchester, and Hustlers, of this city, played a fast game of baseball here Sunday, the Hustlers winning by the score of 6 to 5. Batteries for the Federals were Vallandingham and Lewis; for the Hustlers, Schwab and Scott. A large crowd witnessed the contest, which was hard fought.

BUYS PROPERTY

Mr. L. N. Beall has purchased from Mrs. Florence Havens Denny, of Noblesville, Ind., her two-story frame residence and vacant lot on West High street, in this city, and will get immediate possession. The price paid was $2,850. Mr. Beall will improve the house and move there to live.

THE CAUSE OF PELLAGRA

The interesting announcement is made by the Public Health Service in Washington that diet is at once the cause and cure of pel-lagra; that the disease is not contagious infections, and that a cure can be effected within four weeks
by proper eating.

Many theories have been advanced about pellagra. There was a widely prevalent belief at one time that it was caused by eating corn bread, but the people of Kentucky had been eating corn bread for a hundred years before a case of pellagra appeared in the State. There has been no decrease in the consumption of that staple article of food, an evidence that very few people took the corn bread theory seriously.

There are scientists who have argued that pellagra was caused by the bite of an insect. That seemed more probable, for the world appears to be developing new varieties of insects every year, in addition to maintaining a plentiful stock of the kind by which humanity has been stung

from time immemorial.

It is more than likely that the Public Health Service is right.
Pellagra seems to stick rather closely to regions where the food supply is meager and the daily menu is exceedingly limited. It has been observed that many of the pellagra patients in the Kentucky insane asylums improve materially with practically no treatment other than balanced rations.—Courier-Journal.

We will get but two chances to see the biggest show of its kind in the world. That is on Saturday, October 17th, when Kit Carson's Buffalo Wild West arrives for two performances. Mt. Sterling, Oct. 17.

A STRIKING CONTRAST

Ex-Governor J. C. W. Beckham is the Democratic nominee for United States Senator; Ex-Governor Augustus E. Willson is the Republican nominee. Both have been the Chief Executive of Kentucky and they now seek the same office. It is proper that their public careers should be reviewed and that their respective ability should be measured.

As Governor, Willson was a complete failure. When he came into office he found a $1,000,000 in the Treasury; when he went out of office he left the cash box empty and the State a $1,000,000 in debt. So much for Gus Willson as a financier.

He had no constructive ability.
There is no law on the Statute that bears the imprint of his head or brain. Instead of advocating wise legislation that would improve the State he wasted his energies in the furtherance of petty political schemes in an effort to discredit the Democracy.

So little attention did he pay to the affairs of his office, and so frequent were his barn-storming tours through other States, seeking wherever a gong sounded or a banquet was spread, that he became known as the Wandering Voice. It is a matter of record that during his term the Lieutenant Governor drew over $5000 in salary for acting Governor during Willson's absence from the State.

When the night-rider troubles were at their height his ir-resolution, timidity and bad judgment encouraged the disorder instead of abating it. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were thrown away in needless calling out of the State Militia. The grave question settled itself while Willson was torn between his alleged love for the people and his well proved affection for the Tobacco Trust, whose attorney he had been before he became Governor.

There is not room in this brief recital for the blunders that marked every step in his expensive, inconsequential, and ridiculous administration. It registers high-water mark in the flood-tide of incapacity which has followed every Republican Governor that has set in Frankfort.

This is the same Willson, who rattled around in the Executive Chair, the sport of press and public, who now asks this brave, intelligent and discriminating electorate to send him to the United States Senate where he promises to prove a thorn in the side of President Wilson, whose ability he derides and whose Policies he is anxious to oppose.

It will take a separate article to recount the wise, progressive and economical administration of Governor Beckham. He was Governor of Kentucky for seven years and throughout that period when the existence of his party and the very life of the State was at stake, he proved himself a patriot and statesman. Among the hundred excellent things he furthered was Kentucky's magnificent Capitol, built without a cent of graft, or leaving a dollar of indebtedness.

When Governor Beckham went out of office, he left this new Capitol, without a superior in beauty and worth on the continent, and a million dollars in cash
in the Treasury.

Governor Willson succeeded him and not only spent this $1,000,000 but left the State impoverished and a million dollars in debt when he retired from office.

The Republican party selects Gus Willson as its beloved leader. He typifies all that it stands for. He is a hopeless, hide-bound reactionary, the friend and follower of Taft, the enemy of all progress, narrow, vindictive and benighted.

The Democratic party selects Governor Beckham to lead its fight. He has courage, character and ability. His face is toward the future bright with the sunlight of Democracy. He is the friend of President Wilson and has his hearty endorsement. His presence in the Senate will add more incorruptible vote to the legion that is fighting the battles of the Chief Executive.

How can any fair, sane man,
Democrat, Republican or Progressive turn from Beckham and cast a vote for Gus Willson?

WE HAVE A PRESIDENT

We like to feel that Woodrow Wilson expresses in his own personality the good genius of this country.

The President's services to the nation within the past few months has been sufficient to make an entire four year term notable.

War with Mexico has been averted through patient statecraft that persisted despite criticism, abuse and lack of faith.

A strike of trainmen on ninety-eight Western railroads has been prevented by the agreement of the contending parties to arbitrate. The strike would have been a catastrophe at any time;
in view of other complications, it would have been immeasurably worse at this time. Credit must be given to the men and managers for agreeing to get together, but this was not brought about until the President had entered the negotiations.

The placing of American business upon a basis where the European disorders can affect them little if at all was at the instance of and with the co-operation of the administration, which is also to be credited with fathering a currency law that will prove most efficient in the present situation.

In the last three or four months
it would have been distressingly easy for a Presidential blunderer to embroil or embarrass the United States. We have come through with credit and clean of unworthy compromises or entangling alliances.

Thank God we have a President.—Minneapolis News.

Woodrow Wilson stands today as the only man on earth exercising power outside of his own country. In more than a figurative sense he is the temporary ruler of the world. All hope of the restoration of peace, sooner or later, must rest with him.

Meanwhile, the preservation of neutrality by America, the conciliation of Mexico, the succor of all the nations of the earth devolve upon this country. This prestige must be maintained and this power exercised by the Chief Magistrate.

We believe that Woodrow Wilson is equal to the emergency, but his burdens are heavy and his personal and public trials grievous to be borne. He needs help. He needs the help which every loyal heart in America can render him to a greater or less degree.

Call the expression of this help prayer, or good wishes, or sympathy, or what you will, it is a vital force.

No true American in youth or age ought to withhold this aid to the President.—The Santa Cruz Sunt.

Another step in liberating the business of the United States was the passage of the Clayton antitrust bill.

Woodrow Wilson is no blatherskite. He is no vain booster.
With rare vision and splendid tact he is guiding this country into straight paths, along safe anchorages and into liberated industry. He is a people's President.—Oregon Daily Journal.

THE TRANSYLVANIA

The final nominations to the Transylvania have been made and 14 trotters of great reputation are eligible to start for this classic
at Lexington on Thursday, Oct.
8th. The race itself is the most talked of that has been trotted in the whole country during the year 1914, for amongst the eligible are the largest money winners and the fastest and gamest trotters that have taken part in important events since the opening of the Grand Circuit. The list includes Etawah 2:03 3/4, the winner of the Kentucky Futurity in 1913. Star Winter 2:05, Marta
Bellini 2:05 3/4, Margaret Druien
2:05 3/4, Linda Wrona 2:05 3/4,
Omar 2:06 3/4, Maymack, Sienna
2:06 1/2 and Peter McCormick
2:08 3/4. The last named horse, it is predicted by many judges, will in this race prove one of the sensations of the year; but in form in winning races the horse should be a bitter one amongst Etawah, Star Winter, Margaret
Druien, Sienna, Omar and Marta
Bellini. Still, Peter McCormick may win. But with a good day and track the horse that wins will break the record for the race, the 2:04 1/4 of Penisa Maid in 1909.

THE ISSUE IN KENTUCKY

In his opening speech at Somerset, Governor Beckham said:

"The chief issue in this campaign is whether or not the people of Kentucky endorse the work and policies of President Wilson's administration and whether they wish to aid or to obstruct its further service and progress. In the election of the two United States Senators, one for the short-term and the other for the long-term, and in the election of Representatives in the lower House of Congress, on November 3rd, you are given the opportunity of expressing your approval or disapproval of that administration, and also of determining whether Kentucky's votes in the two Houses of Congress shall uphold and assist the President during the remainder of his term, or shall be used to oppose and embarrass him in all of his important undertakings. If you approve and endorse his administration and desire to give your assistance to the great work in which it is engaged, then you should support the Democratic candidates for the Senate and for the lower House of Congress; for in that way alone, at this time, can you express your approval of it, or give any aid and encouragement to it."

Governor Beckham is right. The importance of this campaign from a National standpoint cannot be over-estimated. It involves the election of two Democratic United States Senators whose votes are needed in the Senate to support the policies of President Wilson. The election of two Republican Senators would be calamitous, to the party in this State, and a rebuke to the President at this crucial period when he needs the hearty support of every loyal patriotic Democrat in this nation.

President Wilson is showing a personal interest in the election of Governor Beckham and Senator Camden. He has urged Democratic members of Congress to do everything in their power to bring about a Democratic victory in Kentucky this fall, and he has likewise appealed to every friend he has in Kentucky. If President Wilson could make an address in this State, it would prove of great value to the party in this contest, but official duties detain him at Washington and grave National and International questions engage his whole attention. Later in the campaign, he will make a written personal appeal to the voters of Kentucky, to stand by the Democratic nominees.

The opening at Somerset drew an immense crowd and the speeches of Governor Beckham, Senator James and Governor McCreary were received with much favor. It was an auspicious beginning for one of the shortest and what promises to be

WORLD'S SERIES

TO START OCT. 9

Philadelphia will have the honor of staging the first two games for the baseball championship of the world between the Philadelphia Americans and the Boston Nationals. They will be played on October 9 and 10 at Shibe Park. Sunday intervening, the next two games will be played in Boston October 12 and 13. If more than four games are necessary to decide the championship the fifth game will be played in Philadelphia October 14 and the sixth in Boston the following day. In the event of a seventh game the toss of a coin will decide whether it shall be played in Boston or Philadelphia. Four games must be won by a club to claim the championship.

All rules governing the contests will be the same as in previous years, and the sale of tickets will be conducted upon lines similar to those of last year, that is, tickets will be sold for three games and if three games are not played the money will be refunded.

The managers, captains of the two teams and the umpires will meet the National Commission on the morning of October 9 to receive final instructions.

The umpires will be Klem and Byron, of the National League, and Dineen and Hildebrand, of the American League. There will be three official scorers, J. G. T. Spink, of St. Louis, and one man to be picked by the Philadelphia baseball writers and one by the Boston writers.

The prices for seats are: Boston—Boxes, $5 each seat; grandstand, $3; pavilions, reserved, $2; general admission, $1; 25-cent bleacher seats, 50 cents.

Philadelphia—Boxes, $5 each seat; grandstand, $2; pavilion, reserved, $2; general admission, $1.

The players eligible to participate in the series are:

Boston: Cather, Cocreham, Connolly, Cottrell, Crutcher, Davis, Deal, Devore, Dugay, Evers, Gilbert, Gowdy, Hess, James, Maranville, Mann, Martin, Mitchell, Moran, Rudolph, Schmidt, Smith, Strand, Tyler, Whaling, Whitted.

Philadelphia: Baker, Barry, Bender, Bressler, Bush, Collins, Combs, Davies, Davis, Kopf, Lapp, McAvoy, McInnis, Murphy, Oldring, Pennock, Plank, Schang, Shawkey, Strunk, Thomas, Thompson, Walsh, Wyckoff.

The National Commission will also arrange the details for the intercity series between the New York National and the American League clubs and the major teams in Chicago.

Indians from every tribe are carried with the Kit Carson Buffalo Ranch Wild West. This will be a good chance to see the red man as he exists on Uncle Sam's reservation. Mt. Sterling, Oct. 17.

THE DOG AS A TAXPAYER

To brand a man "not as good as a sheep-killing dog" no longer stamps him with infamy in Kentucky. The phrase carries with it not ignominy, but glorification. There was a time when the sheep-killing dog had no home, no friends, no legal status. He was an Ishmaelite, hiding in obscure coverts by day and ravaging the sheep pens by night. Vainly the husbandman sought his pelt for the wary canine, with mutton blood on his conscience and lamb's wool in his teeth, knew he was outside the law and acted accordingly. His breed increased and the sheep decreased in inverse ratio.

Finally his case was taken up by the lawmakers of the State. That the sheep-killing dog was everything but law proof was generally admitted. A law was passed to fit the case, and its provisions were, in effect, that an annual tax of $1 be levied upon every dog in Kentucky, and that after the farmer had been paid for his slain sheep out of this tax fund, the remainder should revert to the public school fund of the State.

This law went into effect in 1912. It had no effect, so far as records show, upon canine morals, but it has added very materially to the revenues of the State. The dogs still kill sheep, but the owners of the flocks are reimbursed. This indemnity for Towser's derelictions never swallows up the tax fund. In 1912 the money turned into the public school coffers from the dog tax amounted to $46,888.95. Last year, after the slaughtered sheep had been paid for there remained for the public schools $43,876.69. So, it will be seen, there is some good even in a sheep-killing dog, providing his ignominy can be harnessed, like steam, and directed into productive channels. Louisville Times.

THE BEST OF ITS KIND

The Kit Carson Buffalo Ranch Big Three Ring Wild West Circus, which will exhibit at Mt. Sterling on Saturday, October 17, afternoon and night, is without doubt the largest and best amusement enterprise of its kind extant. No expense has been spared to make it so. Coming as they do, with their peerless troop of men, of all nations, the pioneers of the west, Indians of nearly all tribes, their daring cowboys, beautiful cowgirls, zouaves, Cossacks, Mexicans, Arabs, cavalry of the United States, Germany, France and England, they are well prepared to give us the very best performance we have ever had the good fortune to witness. And no doubt we will in turn give them a packed arena. Excursions are to be run from all points and we will have one of the biggest crowds here that we have ever had. But Mt. Sterling can well take care of them and will entertain them in her usual style. Two performances will be given on Saturday, October 17, and don't forget that date.

Several features of this world famous attraction are the young ladies of the western plains in their remarkable riding and shooting. Cavalry of many nations, including our own boys in blue, Indians from all tribes, Cossacks from Russia, the finest horseman in the world, Vaqueros from Mexico, cowboys in trick and fancy riding and many others which we have not space at present to mention.

The mile long parade will take place before the performance begins and all should seek the main thoroughfares and secure a suitable point from which to witness this great cavalcade.

WHERE DO YOU STAND?

The following is one of the bright spots from the Democratic Text Book:

Which do you favor, Mr. Voter, the party that enacted the income tax and made easier the burden of taxation, or the party that taxed the table and the home? The Republican party taxed the American people $120,000,000 a year on sugar. The Democratic party removed the tax.

Are you for the food tax or the income tax?

Here are some of the Democratic achievements epitomized in the book:

Tariff revised downward and currency system reformed without panic.

Income tax made to shift part of the tax burden from poor to rich.

Dollar Diplomacy abolished—human rights placed above property interests.

Panama canal completed. American Merchant Marine established without subsidies.

Lobby driven out of Congress. Alaskan Railway authorized and work begun.

Popular vote for United States Senators.

War with Mexico averted.

Arbitration substituted for strikes in railway labor disputes. Parcel post extended and cheapened.

Postal system made self-supporting.

Telephone and Telegraph Trust dissolved.

CIRCUIT COURT NEWS

Ollie Patton, of Morehead, charged with uttering a forged check on Judge John W. Riley, of that city, which was cashed here, gave bond for $200 the day before Circuit Court began, and when the case was called he was not present, and the bond, which was up in cash, has been declared forfeited. It is said that the cash bond was furnished by Patton's sister, a Mrs. Gallagher, of Lexington.

Ike Stackhouse, a white man, tried Wednesday on the charge of attempting to attack a nine-year-old girl, was convicted and given a penitentiary sentence of from five to eight years.

The Big Woods Lumber case, transferred here from Menifee county, in which Maury Kemper, of Lexington, was an attorney, was tried before Judge Young and submitted.

CHILD BITTEN ON LIP BY DOG WITH RABIES

Jesse Arnold Scott, five-year-old grandson of Mrs. Mattie Scott, of Winchester, is at Bowling Green under treatment at the Pasteur Institute. The child's mother, Mrs. Charles Scott, is also under treatment there.

The child was bitten on the lip by a dog at his home in Campbellburg and the mother dressed the wound. Later it was found that the animal was affected with rabies.

Coming upon their own private trains of double-length cars, Kit Carson's Buffalo Ranch Wild West is well equipped to give us the very best show and from all accounts will certainly do so. Mt. Sterling, Oct. 17.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For United States Senator Full Term

J. C. W. BECKHAM

For United States Senator Unexpired Term

JOHNSON N. CAMDEN

For Congress

W. J. FIELDS

Wilson—That's All.

The Democratic campaign in Kentucky was begun at Somerset recently in the heart of the enemy's country. The chief speaker was Mr. Beckham, the Democratic nominee for the Senate. There is but one issue and Mr. Beckham rightly devoted himself to that.

The election of the Democratic Senatorial and Congressional nominees means the support of a Democratic Administration in a crisis in which such support rises above the level of partisanship to the plane of patriotism. The Wilson Administration has kept the faith. It is confronted by the most difficult situation that an American Administration has been called on to deal with since Lincoln.

The personality of the Democratic nominees does not enter into the question. It is sufficient that they are the nominees of the Democratic party, that the Democratic party is the party of Woodrow Wilson and that Woodrow Wilson stands between this country and disaster.

The Republican or Progressive who, under these circumstances, votes "the straight ticket," will put party before country. The Democrat who votes any other than the straight ticket will be false to both—Louisville Times.

Mr. H. S. Goodpaster.

The recent disclosures at Frankfort testify anew to the courage, competency and honesty of our friend, H. S. Goodpaster.

When we think of our state house square, where rank egotism, idleness and an utter lack of regard for the interests of the people, are so apparent as to be little short of a state disgrace, it is refreshing to think that we have such a young man in the office of State Inspector and Examiner. Our only regret is that his kind is so scarce.

The election this fall is strictly a national one and every vote cast for any of the Democratic nominees is a vote endorsing President Wilson's Administration and every vote cast against them is a vote against the Wilson Administration—Elizabeth-town News.

RIGGS SULLIVAN WEDS WINCHESTER GIRL

Mr. Riggs Sullivan, of this city and Owingsville, surprised his many friends here last Tuesday afternoon when he was united in marriage in Lexington to Miss Emma Thomson, of Winchester. Mr. Sullivan left this city in an automobile accompanied by Mr. Allie Hardin for Winchester where they were joined by Miss Thomson and Miss Virginia Lisle. The party then proceeded to Lexington where Mr. Sullivan and Miss Thomson were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, the Rev. Chandler officiating. The happy couple returned to Owingsville Wednesday where they will make their future home.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Sullivan, of this city, and was born and reared here where he is quite popular with a host of admiring friends. For the past few years he has had charge of a branch business of G. D. Sullivan & Co., at Owingsville and by his correct methods and pleasing manner has made quite a success in a business way and has become a favorite in the metropolis of Bath county.

His bride is a daughter of Mrs. D. A. Thomson, of Winchester, and is a charming young lady of rare accomplishments and has a captivating disposition which has won for her many friends in this city where she has frequently been the guest of the Misses Calk.

That their married life may be one continuous day of sunshine and happiness is the sincere wish of the Advocate and its readers.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRY

Mr. Clay Ford, prominent farmer of this county, and Miss Mary Campbell, of Sideview, came to this city late Wednesday evening and were quietly married. Rev. Bruce W. Trimble performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Mr. Ford is a son of Matt Ford, of the Aaron's Run section, and is an excellent and popular young man, while his bride is a very attractive and popular young woman, the daughter of Mrs. Al. Anderson.

IF WE ONLY UNDERSTOOD

If we knew the cares and trials, . . . Knew the efforts all in vain, And the bitter disappointment, Understood the loss and gain— Would the grim eternal roughness Seem—I wonder—just the same?

Should we help where now we hinder, Should we pity where we blame?

Ah! we judge each other harshly, Knowing not life's hidden force—

Knowing not the fount of action Is less turbid at its source; Seeing not amid the evil All the golden grains of good; And we'd love each other better If we only understood.

—Rudyard Kipling.

Could we judge all deeds by That surround each other's lives,

See the naked heart and spirit, Know the span the action gives, Often we would find it better, Purer than we judge we should, We should love each other better If we only understood.

IMPORT CHROMIC IRON ORE

South Africa Furnishes Greatest Part of Amount That is Used in the United States.

Production of chromic iron ore in the eastern portion of the United States, where the demand is greatest, ceased years ago. The supply is now obtained wholly by importation, mainly from South Africa. California has been the only producing state for nearly a decade. Deposits have been found in 32 counties in that state, but practically the whole output in 1913 came from one mine near Dunsmuir, in Shasta county. Chromite is one of the most difficult minerals to fuse. It will stand a temperature of about 2,180 degrees Centigrade, and this marked resistance to heat makes it valuable for refractory purposes, furnace hearths, chrome bricks for lining furnaces, etc. A large amount is consumed in the manufacture of pigments, dyes and various chemical compounds, as well as for tanning, in which it imparts to the leather softness and durability under exposure to dampness. The most rapidly growing use of chromite is metallurgical, in the manufacture of steel alloys. Chromium gives to steel a marked degree of hardness, and if added in the proper proportion does not produce brittleness.

PROBABLY RIGHT

"Papa says you don't live within your salary." "He means I can't live without it, I guess."

KILLS STRAW TICKLER.

Tickling a friend's nose with a straw led to the death of Elmon J. Lisey, thirty years old, of North Braddock. According to the report received at the coroner's office, Lisey visited his friend, John Quentin, and when he entered the house he found Quentin in bed, dozing. Taking a straw, Lisey began to tickle Quentin's nose.

Awakened suddenly from his nap by the irritation of the straw point, Quentin jumped up in bed, pulled his revolver from under the pillow, and in a friendly manner pointed it at Lisey.

The latter, thinking his friend over-excited and about to shoot, grappled with him, and in the scuffle the revolver was discharged, the bullet entering Lisey's heart and instantly killing him.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

PROGRESS.

The Actress—Haden't I better have my jewels stolen again? The papers don't seem to know I exist.

Her Press Agent—Old stuff, my dear young lady, old stuff. I'm arranging for you to lecture on the domestic arts, giving demonstrations of scrubbing, dishwashing and so on, in your newly imported Polret gowns and a heliotrope wig.

HARD ON OUR BARDS.

"Pa, why do they call them 'minor' poets?"

"Because they ought to be working with a pick and shovel, my son."

PLEASANT.

ONLY WHEN RUNNING.

Irritable Old Man—Say, does this car always make this racket? Chauffeur—No, sir; only when it's running.

Public Renting OF LANDS

About 1000 acres in Montgomery and Bath counties. As Committee of W. T. Fitzpatrick, I will offer at Public Renting, at the Court House door, in the City of Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Saturday, October 17, 1914

at two o'clock p. m., the following lands, to-wit:

First—What is known as the "Bailey Farm," located on the south side of the Howard's Mill pike, about 4 miles from Mt. Sterling, and containing about 158½ acres of land. There is on this farm a good dwelling house, tobacco barn, which will hold about 6 acres of tobacco. Said land will be farmed as follows: Same land cultivated in tobacco this year (1914) to be cultivated in tobacco in 1915, containing about 8½ acres. The land cultivated in corn this year (1914) to be cultivated in corn in 1915, containing about 6 acres. Also the boundary, containing about 8 or 10 acres, in rye this year (1914) and lying north of the dwelling and between same and the pike, to be cultivated in corn in 1915. Privilege to enter said land for seeding purpose in the fall of 1915 is reserved. The balance of said farm to remain in grass and to be grazed.

Second—What is known as the "Howard's Mill Farm," located on the south side of the Howard's Mill turnpike, about 5 miles from Mt. Sterling and containing about 581 acres. Said land runs to Slate Creek; said land is to be farmed as follows: The same land cultivated in tobacco this year (1914) to be cultivated in tobacco in 1915, containing about 10 acres. The same land cultivated in corn this year (1914) to be cultivated in corn in 1915, containing about 32 acres. About 80 acres of timothy and clover meadow; balance of the land in grass. There are 5 tenant houses, 2 tobacco barns and one stock barn on this farm. Privilege to enter in fall of 1915 for purpose of seeding reserved.

Third—The Bath county farm of about 210 acres, on Slate Creek, has a dwelling house, outbuildings and a tobacco barn for about 5 acres. Said land to be cultivated as follows: About 5 acres in tobacco, to be selected by the said committee. About 25 acres cultivated in corn this year (1914) to be sown in rye, wheat or oats. The balance of land in grass. Privilege to enter this land in fall of 1915 for purpose of seeding is reserved by the said committee.

The renter of each of said farms is to cut the weeds and to do so by September 1, 1915, free of costs.

The renter is also to make any necessary repairs on fencing, the material to be furnished by the said committee. Tobacco stalks and all manure to be left on the land.

The rental period on each of said farms is from March 1, 1915 to March 1, 1916, the renter to execute notes with good security therefor.

The lands will be shown to prospective renters on application.

Further information can be had by applying to the undersigned committee or

LAW STUDENTS ADVISED TO READ THE BIBLE

That a thorough knowledge of the Bible will be of infinite advantage to every student of the law was the emphatic opinion expressed by President Henry S. Barker, of State University, in an informal address to the students of the College of Law of the university. He impressed upon the students the great value a knowledge of the Bible would be to them, and to this end he suggested attending church regularly. "The Bible is the foundation of modern law," was his statement, "and for this reason a working knowledge of it will be of much benefit to the young lawyer." Going further, he said, "I will guarantee that any young man who attends church regularly will find that at the end of the year his ability as a student has increased 25 per cent."

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Henry Judy will entertain with a Rook party Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. William A. Sutton entertained in a delightful manner Thursday afternoon at her beautiful home on Sycamore street with a "Rook party." There were nine tables, and about forty guests participated in the enjoyable and interesting games, which were followed by a delicious luncheon of substantial.

As a rule receptions of an official or semi-official character have so much of ceremony and formality that they are not always hailed with delight by those who are called upon to take part either as guests or as entertainers. A notable exception to the usual dull and perfunctory affairs of this kind was the reception tendered Rev. M. V. P. Yeaman and his wife by the congregation of the Presbyterian church last Friday evening at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. VanSant. The breath of flowers perfumed the air and glorified the occasion with their varied hues of white and red and blue and gold—and the guests themselves were not so far behind the flowers in their appearance—and though not arrayed exactly like the lily, their costumes were fully as attractive. It was truly a well dressed—congenial and hospitable assembly—everyone seemed happy and well pleased with himself, the new preacher and his wife, and after a real supper of oysters, coffee and confections the geniality and self-satisfaction was even more in evidence. About one hundred and fifty persons were present and we certainly feel sorry for the other one hundred and fifty who failed to attend—for it is not often that so many very pleasant people are met in one short evening. We congratulate the new pastor and his parishioners on this auspicious beginning of his acquaintance with Mt. Sterling, and hope his stay will be a long and profitable one for his church and for the community.

FEARS ASSASSINATION

A special from Lexington says: "Perry Oakley, a citizen of Preston, Bath county, where the Pergram-Harris feud claimed several victims some time ago, is in fear of his life from 'night riders,' since the receipt of an anonymous letter, dated at Mt. Sterling, Ky., warning him to stay away from Lexington and out of Bath county on pain of meeting the same fate as James Harris, who was waylaid and shot to death near Preston several months ago. The letter bore evidences of having been written by two different persons. Mr. Oakley has placed the letter in the hands of the post-office authorities who are investigating. He says that he does not fear assassination in Lexington, but that he does not feel safe in Bath county since receiving the letter and will stay away for the present at least.

LINDSAY DOUGLAS AND MISS PANGBURN WED

The marriage of Miss Pauline Pangburn to Mr. Lindsay Douglas on last Wednesday afternoon came as quite a surprise to the numerous friends of the contracting parties. The wedding took place at the beautiful new home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. Clyde Darsie officiating. Only immediate relatives were present. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left in an automobile for Lexington, from which point they went to Cincinnati, returning to this city Thursday night. They have taken rooms in the old Farmers' Bank building on West Main street where they will reside for the present.

Mr. Douglas is the popular Deputy County Clerk, of Montgomery county, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Douglas, of the Levee, this county, and is a young man of sterling qualities with a host of admiring friends.

Miss Pangburn is one of the lovely daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Pangburn and is a deservedly popular young girl, possessed with many lovely traits of character which go to make the home life so beautiful.

The Advocate joins countless friends in extending best wishes and congratulations and hopes that their beautiful young lives may always be filled with happiness and prosperity.

AN OPEN ROAD TO PROSPERITY

One of the effects of the European war will be the further decimation of the world's livestock supply. Already there is a shortage of meat animals in the United States and for some months agricultural authorities have been urging farmers to greater efforts in the production of livestock.

The arguments that have been advanced are given tenfold strength by the remarkable conditions that have arisen in Europe. The New York Commercial, in discussing the war situation, expresses the belief that Europe will have exhausted its horses and meat animals before the fighting ceases and that "dearth of supplies of food will probably have as much to do with the making of peace as the loss of battles on land and sea." The Commercial continues:

"The waste of this war must be repaired after it is over and it will be in this work that neutral countries will make their greater profit. Farmers must prepare to take advantage of this opportunity that is sure to come. The easiest way to accumulate a competence in the next five years lies in the increase of the herds. This is as old as the time of Abraham and the golden days of the cattle boom in the West will be as nothing when compared with the profit of restocking the desolated farms of Europe. The many always wonder how the few grow rich. Every intelligent farmer should be in comfortable circumstances within five years if he will build for a future that is not far distant. Raising live stock cannot be overdone within that space of time, and it goes well with other agricultural pursuits."

There is an opportunity here for the farmers of Kentucky and the South in general. The South should become the great cattle-raising section of the United States. There is no part of the country where livestock can be brought to maturity at less expense to the farmer than in the South, for the South abounds in natural pasturage and the climate is mild. In the days when the prairies of the West were covered with cattle the ranch owners often lost thousands of animals during the winter season because of severe and protracted cold. The Southern farmer has no such contingency to face. Every section of the country should profit by the expansion of the livestock industry, but the South should profit most of all.

The prosperous farmer is the man who looks ahead and plans his agricultural operations with some regard for commercial and economic conditions. The farmer of today, however, needs no extraordinary endowment of wisdom to recognize the opportunity that is presented for the successful expansion of the livestock industry.—Courier-Journal.

THE MOONLIGHT SCHOOL MOVEMENT

The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission announces that the second session of moonlight schools will begin on October 5, and that it bids fair to be better than the first session, since "most of the teachers who gained experience in the first session are just ready now for good work."

It is stated that about 1,000 teachers responded to the first call for volunteers and that others are daily offering their services. The Governor recently has issued a proclamation emphasizing the importance of the movement and urging general co-operation in the work of reducing illiteracy.

It is possible to conduct a moonlight school in any county or in any neighborhood. The Illiteracy Commission is making an effort to organize the work in every county. If this can be done it will result in the practical elimination of illiteracy. Kentucky is the first State to attempt anything of the kind, and the success of the moonlight schools in some of the mountain counties has demonstrated their practicability anywhere that the necessary popular interest can be aroused.

There are thousands of illiterates in Kentucky who would welcome the opportunity to learn to read and write. The experience of those who have conducted moonlight schools is that a good beginning is more than half the battle. Once the campaign is fairly started in any community the volunteers find no lack of material. The illiterates are willing to be educated. In fact, there are comparatively few of them who do not deplore their lack of education. One energetic, earnest teacher who puts his soul in his work can clear his district of illiteracy.

The campaign should have the assistance of the friends of education in general. If teachers are there are others who can do the work capably and successfully. It should be a patriotic duty to assist in removing the stigma of illiteracy from the State.

Office of Comptroller of the Currency

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8, 1914.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The Mt. Sterling National Bank," located in the City of Mt. Sterling, in the County of Montgomery and State of Kentucky, has complied with all the provisions of the Act of Congress "to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence, and for other purposes," approved July 12, 1882, as amended by the Act, approved April 12, 1902;

Now, therefore, I, John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The Mt. Sterling National Bank," located in the City of Mt. Sterling, in the County of Montgomery and State of Kentucky, is authorized to have succession for the period specified in its aforesaid articles of association; namely, until close of business on September 7, 1934.

In testimony whereof witness my hand and seal of office this eighth day of September, 1914.

PARCEL POST AS MARKET AID

New York City having recently established two public markets it is now proposed to utilize the parcel post as a means of increasing their usefulness.

The Postmaster General has been asked to establish a parcel post substation at each of the markets in order that persons residing in the suburbs may order commodities by telephone or otherwise and have them delivered by mail. It is claimed that through the medium of the markets the consumers are buying direct from the farmers and that persons who patronize are able to effect a material reduction in the cost of living.

The parcel post plan, it is contended, would extend the benefits of the markets to many persons who cannot conveniently go to market. It would seem feasible to make use of the mails in this way at much less expense for delivery. Consumers who reside at considerable distances from the markets, under the present conditions, either must go to the market in person or must pay for the delivery of commodities. In the case of suburban residents any saving that might be made in buying direct from the producer is more than counterbalanced by the cost of delivery. If the purchases can be delivered, however, with no other outlay than for postage, dwellers in the suburbs can well afford to buy at the public markets.

There seems to be no reason why the parcel post could not, in this way, supplement the public market. If the plan is adopted in New York and proves to be a success it should work equally well in other cities. Whether it will be adopted depends upon the Postmaster General, but as he has shown a great desire to increase the usefulness of the parcel post he probably will consent to the proposed arrangement.—Courier-Journal.

ONLY 14 WET COUNTIES

As a result of the elections held Monday there are now only fourteen wet counties in the State out of the 120, and in some of these nearly all the county is dry, while in others there are a number of dry sections. The wet counties are:

Christian (Hopkinsville and Gracely only two wet places.)
Boyd (Ashland county seat.)
Franklin (Frankfort, county seat.)
McCracken (Paducah county seat.)
Jefferson (Louisville.)
Kenton (Covington.)
Campbell (Newport.)
Marion (Lebanon.)
Davies (Owensboro—county has number of dry precincts.)
Henderson (Henderson.)
Fayette (Lexington.)
Anderson (Lawrenceburg.)
Mead (Brandenburg.)
Nelson (Bardstown.)

LOUISVILLE'S OUTLOOK

Let any one go down the main thoroughfares of Louisville and see the great evidences of activity, action, intercourse. The streets are thronged with people as they have never been before. The hotels are crowded. The food crops are being marketed at high prices. Cotton is beginning to move, and in a little while we will begin to realize upon the labors of the farmer. We have a property that the world now longs for: The products of our fields and mills and mines. We are sending coal abroad in ever increasing quantity. We are shipping horseshoes to Europe, and we are sending forward other supplies to fill the vacuum war has created.

Things are different, because of the war. The channels of commerce have been altered, the methods of doing business may have to be changed, the relative value of products as well as of stocks and bonds are to be ad-

F. Cockrell by J. B. Tipton and wife, dated May 23rd, 1900, and recorded in Deed Book 57, page 316, and by deed from said B. F. Cockrell to Elizabeth Cockrell Hawkins, being of record in Deed Book 67, page 362, all in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office.

TRACT NO. 2. A lot of land adjoining the above described tract and situated in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, and being on the East side of Mayville Street and running in the shape of an "L," and fronting on High Street, being the vacant lot between the livery stable and blacksmith shop and the lot on which the carriage shop stands formerly occupied by C. W. Heck, which fronts on High Street. Said lot fronts on High Street—feet and on Mayville Street—feet; and being the same property conveyed to B. F. Cockrell by Fannie D. Setters, recorded in Deed Book 63, page 313; and by B. F. Cockrell to Elizabeth Cockrell Hawkins by deed recorded in Deed Book 67, page 362, all in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office.

Said Commissioner will offer said two above described tracts separately and then as a whole, and will accept the bid or bids yielding the most money.

TRACT NO. 3. A lot lying on the West side of North Mayville Street in the City of Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, bounded on the North by the lot of Mrs. F. B. Nesbitt; on the East by Mayville Street; on the South by lot of F. C. Laughlin's heirs or devisees, and on the West by the lot formerly owned by S. W. Gaitskill (now N. H. Trimble), and being the same property conveyed to B. F. Cockrell by deed of John A. Judy, Master Commissioner, recorded in Commissioner's Deed Book 4, page 462; and which property was conveyed to Elizabeth Cockrell Hawkins by deed of B. F. Cockrell, recorded in Deed Book 67, page 362, all in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office.

The purchaser will be required to give bond, with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money, to have the force and effect of a replevin bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale, according to law. Bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms. A lien will be retained on the land sold till all the purchase money is paid. Bond payable to M. C. Clay, Special Commissioner.

MONTGOMERY CIRCUIT COURT.

BEN F. PERRY, - - - Plaintiff

vs.

J. RAYMOND SEE, - - - Defendant

NOTICE OF SALE IN EQUITY.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Montgomery Circuit Court, rendered at the September Term, 1914, thereof, in the above cause, the undersigned will on the 19th Day of October, 1914

at 1 o'clock, p. m., or thereabout, (being Court day), proceed to offer for sale at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, on a credit of 6 months, at the Court House door, in Mt. Sterling, Ky., the property mentioned in the judgment, to-wit:

The interest of J. Raymond See, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise the said amount, in a tract of land lying in Montgomery county, Kentucky, on the waters of Slate Creek, containing about Two Hundred and Thirty (230) Acres, and being the tract of land upon which Jacob See resided at the time of his death, and upon which Mrs. Clarinda See and Prossie See now reside. Said land is bounded on the North by the lands of Charles Anderson, James Barnes and Will Turley; on the East by the lands of H. C. Howell; on the South by the lands of John R. Thomas and on the West by Slate Creek and the lands of Henry S. Duff's children, and the interest of the defendant therein comes to him under the will of Jacob See, he being one of the four children of the said Prossie See; or sufficient thereof to produce $709.38, so ordered to be made.

The purchaser will be required to give bond, with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money, to have the force and effect of a replevin bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale, according to law. Bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms. A lien will be retained on the land sold till all the purchase money is paid. Bond payable to Master Commissioner.

JOHN A. JUDY,
13-3t Master Commissioner M. C. C.

WILSON ENDORSES BECKHAM AND CAMDEN

President Woodrow Wilson considered the Maine election so important in its relation to National politics that at his personal request Senator Ollie James made a number of speeches in that State. Congressman Barkley, of Kentucky was also on the stump in Maine and a number of other powerful friends of the administration lent their efforts to promoting the Democratic cause. The success of the Democratic ticket in Maine was most gratifying to President Wilson, as it was to Democrats everywhere. There is an old saying, "That as Maine goes, so goes the Union," and it is certain as anything can be in politics, that as Maine has gone this year, so will the whole Union go this year—overwhelmingly Democratic.

President Wilson is as much interested in the election of two Democratic Senators in Kentucky this year as he was in the Maine election. At the meeting of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees at Louisville recently, a telegram was received by Senator James from President Wilson urging the election of Beckham and Camden to the Senate. It is absolutely necessary that the Democratic vote in the Senate be strengthened and that the work of the administration be upheld. The loss of a Democratic Senator at this time would be disastrous to the Democratic party, and realizing the gravity of the national situation the President is taking a personal interest in the Kentucky Campaign this fall.

He has said to his friends that he would be glad to make a speech in Kentucky for the ticket, but on account of the International complications, he has decided not to make any public addresses at this time. A little later, however, he will issue several statements, setting forth the work done by the Democratic administration and appealing to the people of the whole country, to support him and his party in the patriotic work they are performing.

Governor Beckham and Senator Camden stand shoulder to shoulder with the President on all public questions. Senator James, has done a giant's work in the Senate and has had excellent support from Senator Camden. When Senator Camden's term expires, Governor Beckham will be ready to co-operate with the President in solving those great problems that now confront the party and the nation.

Every Democrat in Kentucky should go to the polls in November and cast his vote for Governor Beckham and Senator Camden and thus endorse that great statesman and patriot, Woodrow Wilson.

BUYS JACKSON PAPER

Captain J. L. McCoy, of Lexington, has bought John T. Hindman's half interest in the Jackson Times and has leased the other half from R. C. Musick and will in the future be its editor and publisher. Captain McCoy, who was in the internal revenue service under different Republican administrations, and who is a widely known Republican and party worker, will for the present conduct the Times as an independent paper. He has had experience in the business, enjoys wide popularity and will it is believed, make a great success with the Times.

AUTO DEALER GIVES COMMISSION TO ROADS

Mr. Sam M. Bradley, of Morehead, who has the local agency for the Ford automobile at that town, is devoting all his commissions received from the sale of cars, to the improvement of the county roads. So far the work has been done on the stretch of road between Morehead and Farmers.

Mr. Bradley said that the improvement in the roads would cause him to sell more cars and the introduction of the cars would raise the value of property, and as he was a large property holder he would receive his reward.

The roads from Morehead to Mt. Sterling and to Olive Hill, in the other direction, are considered fairly good for automobiles, the lighter cars making better time though several heavier ones have passed through Morehead recently and every week machines make the run from Ashland to Morehead.

C. B. NELSON BUYS WINCHESTER DEMOCRAT

The Winchester Democrat, which for several years has been under the ownership of Messrs. Charles Nelson and Steve K. Vaught, was sold Friday at public auction by order of Judge J. M. Benton. The order of the sale of the paper followed a suit instituted by Charles Nelson against Vaught for a dissolution. Judge Benton ordered the paper sold and also an accounting made of the business of the firm.

The paper was bid in by Mayor D. T. Matlack for Mr. Charles Nelson at $12,050. Messrs. Matlack and Vaught were the contending bidders.

CHILD INJURED BY HEN

Jack Peters, the little three-year-old son of Jack C. Peters, was severely injured at his home on Winn street, on Wednesday of last week. The youngster was in the yard playing with the chickens when he tried to catch one of them the hen attacked the boy. She flew into his face and the sharp claws scratched his face badly, and cut his eye very badly, piercing the lid, and it was feared that the sight would be destroyed, but after physicians have treated the wounds it is believed that the sight will be saved. The pain is quite intense.

Attend the churches in your city.

BURGLARS GET $250 AND 1500 STAMPS

Burglars blew a safe at the store of David Prewitt and William Finne'l at Pine Grove, nine miles from Lexington just over in the Clark county line and secured $250 in money and about 1500 stamps. A woman residing near the store heard the explosion about 12 o'clock, but thought it was some passerby firing a revolver. A portion of the money was the property of the store proprietors and the remainder of the money belonged to the United States Government received for stamps sold.

The work was done with nitroglycerine and there is no clue to the perpetrators except that Mr. Prewitt is confident that it was done by professionals. Captain Mullikin's bloodhounds were summoned to the scene at 6 o'clock the next morning, but they were unable to strike a good trail. The United States Government will make a special investigation of the case because of being a post office.

There have been other similar cases along the Chesapeake & Ohio and it is thought that the men hail from some large city.

NOMINATED IN ARIZONA

Mr. Brack Richardson, formerly of Montgomery county, has been nominated by the Democrats for County Attorney of Pima county, Arizona, according to news received by relatives here. Tucson is the county seat and one of the largest cities in the State. Mr. Richardson has many old friends here who will learn of his success with great pleasure.

SECRETARY OF STATE CRECELIOUS INDICTED

Official circles were set in a furore Thursday afternoon when the Franklin county grand jury indicted Secretary of State C. F. Crecelious on three charges of obtaining money by false pretenses and failed to return any indictment for the alleged theft of funds in the automobile department, as reported by State Inspector and Examiner Sherman Goodpaster, and specifically referred to by Judge Stout in his charge to the grand jury.

The first indictment against Dr. Crecelious recites that he represented to State Auditor Bosworth that "as Secretary of State he had employed Mrs. Mamie Y. Stone at a salary of $100 per month for the month of May, 1913, that as said Secretary of State he had incurred the expense of $100 for said month as aforesaid and did thereby procure a warrant for $100 payable to said Stone, while in fact and in truth said Stone was not employed at a salary of $100, but a salary of $25, and the said Crecelious did thereby obtain $75 and convert it to his own use."

The other two indictments are similar, excepting that they refer to the months of June and July, 1913.

WILL LOCATE HERE

Dr. Scott Goodpaster, of Ashland, has moved to this city and as soon as he can secure offices will practice his profession here. Dr. and Mrs. Goodpaster are well known here and we welcome these excellent people to our city.

Ottawah County Man Cured of Catarrhal Deafness

Wonderful Results From the Use of Andes' Great Prescription

Mr. J. T. Armstrong, one of Ottawa's most prosperous retired farmers and one of Gadsden's most enterprising citizens, says: "I am 65 years of age. I have suffered with catarrh for a number of years. I had ringing roaring noises just like a sawmill in my head, which troubled me most of the time. I took cold like a baby; the least change in the weather affected me so I was a perfect barometer. My hearing became so badly impaired that I got totally deaf in my right ear. I used Andes' Great Medicines just two weeks and my hearing is entirely restored; I now hear as well as I ever could. I am so overjoyed at being able to hear again that I do nothing scarcely at all but go around telling my friends about it. I rode 15 miles in the country to one of the best neighbors I ever had. I knew he was hard of hearing and I wanted to tell him about it. I got to his house about 2 o'clock; found him in the field plowing. He found I could hear; he unhitched his horse from the ploy, put a saddle on it and rode to town with me the same evening, to get some of the medicine that had cured me. Words fail me when I try to write about Andes' medicines, but the strongest thing I can say for them is, THEY CURE."

Mrs. George Jones, of 1933 Tenth Avenue north, suffered with catarrh of the head for three years; the dripping mucous matter caused her throat to become inflamed and gave her uneasiness she felt was that this catarrh of mucous matter was passing from her throat through the bronchial tubes to her lungs, as she had a dry, hacking cough and had lost much flesh. She says:

"I am now on my third bottle of Andes' Great Prescription; it has done more for me than all others combined; and I feel that I am daily regaining my former good health."

Mrs. Charlie E. Scott, of Woodland states:

"I have been a great sufferer from stomach trouble for five years. I had bloating after meals, palpitation of the heart, pains through the chest and across the small of the back. Sometimes I had an enormous appetite, and then again I just couldn't force my food down. My nerves were all to pieces. I would nearly jump from my chair at the slightest noise, then would tremble like a leaf and have weak spells. I also had wakeful spells at night. I have used two bottles of Andes' Great Prescription. I can eat and digest my food and have no bad feelings from it. I sleep fine and wake up in the mornings feeling refreshed. My health is better than it has been for years and I feel good."

Many of Clark county's citizens are loud in the praise of the good Andes' Medicines have done them.—Winchester
